3 Bedroom Townhouse in Lagos Centre

€800/week - €1,450/week

Beautifully renovated traditional 3 bedroom townhouse situated right in the heart of the historic Lagos old town wit all the shops, cafes and restaurants at the doorstep.

If exploring the local area is your favourite past time on holiday, then look no further; this house is the perfect base, never more than a couple of minutes' walk from the beaches, shops and restaurants.

Located on a peaceful street in the historic old town, this renovated carpenter's workshop has been transformed into a beautiful holiday escape with three bedrooms.

On the 2nd floor there is the master bedroom with Air-conditioning and an en-suite bathroom and with it's own private terrace overlooking the town, perfect for enjoying a good book and drink before going out for dinner in one of the many quality restaurants Lagos has to offer.

Downstairs is a spacious living and dining area with a modern fitted kitchen and a comfortable sofa for relaxing after a busy day at the beach or sightseeing. The TV has Portuguese and German channels, BBC World news and a range of entertainment channels via cable TV. The WiFi has been also installed.

Up on the 1st floor is the twin bedroom, shower-room and the extra room with the 1.9m bed and trundle which pulls out from under it.

This house would be great
