From the position in a historic building in the heart of the town, to the location on a very quiet street while being one step away from all shops, cafés and restaurants. This room flow perfectly onto a generous patio with a dining table and a separate smaller patio with a lovely cozy feel. The apartment has two En-suite bedrooms, each a good size, with wardrobes and a small balcony offering views over the historic town. One en-suite has a walkin shower and the other has a bathroom with a bespoke window in the ceiling giving a great flow of light.
